Jim, Jill Kelly to speak at Brockport church's event

ALAN MORRELL • STAFF WRITER • NOVEMBER 29, 2010

It's not often that a Hall of Fame quarterback makes it to these parts, so Mark DuPré was thrilled when he landed Jim Kelly and his wife, Jill, for a speaking engagement in Brockport.

The Kellys will appear at “Christmas Extravaganza 2010,” an annual holiday song-and-dance event sponsored by Christ Community Church in Brockport. The event will be held at the State University College at Brockport’s Tuttle North Gymnasium.

DuPré, assistant pastor of the church at 36 Coleman Creek Road, said the Kellys’ message fits in perfectly with the theme of the event, “A Baby Changes Everything.” DuPré was thinking of when Jesus was born, and the Kellys will discuss their son Hunter, who died from Krabbe’s disease in 2005 at age 8.

Jill and Jim Kelly hold their son, Hunter, 6, in 2004. He died in 2005.

AP file photo

The rest of this article may be archived. Use the following link to search our archive for this, and related articles available for purchase:

http://pqasb.pqarchiver.com